

The Turama Pacific Marketing Group was created by the leading properties of the Cook Islands in cooperation with the four companies of the Turama Pacific Travel Group to establish a closer working relationship with our valued agents and wholesalers by collectively working together. Our Current members as at 1 January 2008 are as follows

